Flood Dangers Increasing in Some Sections

By The Associated Press

Flood dangers appeared increasing in wide areas of Oklahoma and Kansas today after two days of torrential rains and no indication of an immediate letup in the downpours.

The stormy weather that battered the plains states again yesterday, hitting hardest in Oklahoma and Kansas after striking areas in Texas, spread into parts of the Mississippi Valley early today. Thunderstorms, hail and heavy rains were reported. Several funnel clouds were sighted and tornado winds lashed many areas. Deaths in tornadoes in Texas and drownings in Oklahoma and Kansas since Wednesday night mounted to 27.

Many streams were reported overflowing and others nearing flood stage in Oklahoma and Kansas. Seven deaths have been attributed to floods in Oklahoma and Kansas.

Heavy rains in the eastern half of Kansas brought flood warnings from Weather Bureau forecasters. Light to moderate flooding was indicated they said, after heavy rains over the watershed of the Little Arkansas River, from Sedgewick southward into Wichita.

The heavy wet belt extended across areas in Oklahoma, Nebraska, Kansas, South Dakota and Missouri, with amounts of more than 5 inches in some places. Meanwhile, areas in Colorado and Wyoming were digging out from a spring snow storm that dumped up to 2 feet of snow in mountain areas.

Bill Plans Commission On Problems of Aging

Harrisburg, (P)—Creation of a 16-member commission on problems of the aging is proposed in a new bill in the Senate.

The measure calls for a "comprehensive study, analysis and interpretation of all information and data on programs pertaining to the aging processes and the needs of older residents of the state."

Members of the commission would be the secretaries of welfare, health, commerce, labor and industry, the state treasurer, five appointees of the governor and three by the heads of each house.

Music by 1,500-Voice Choir Is Feature of Graham's Crusade

By GEORGE CORNELL

New York, (P)—Seldom has such sound been heard around Broadway.

"It's the spine-tingling vibrancy of thousands of voices blending in lyric gospel hymns."

This is an impressive feature of the Billy Graham crusade, which today rolls into its third day in vigorous fettle.

"We heard that singing and decided to go in," explained one of a group of soldiers last night.

The soldiers were among 13,000 people that streamed into Madison Square Garden for the second night of Graham's six-week stand.

No telling how many were drawn in by the choir warming up. The evening tones float out to the street, a rare contrast to the

Candidates Seeking Various Offices Taper Off on Quiet Drive To Round Up Support

Warren County primary election campaign begins its final phase this weekend as candidates have their last chance to influence the electorate before balloting next Tuesday.

Though there have been few surface rumbles, a quietly intensive campaign has been waged by candidates seeking county offices.

Pollticking throughout the county has been conducted by both Republican District Attorney candidates, incumbent Myer Kornreich and Samuel Bonavita. A similar series of visitations has been compiled by Republican Coroner incumbent Ed C. Lowrey and his opponent Ed MacKendrick.

In the borough, Burgess William E. Rice is running unopposed to succeed himself in office. Gerould Ostergard is unopposed for the Republican nomination for tax collector, a position which would become vacant in January when Ethel Baldensperger resigns.

For Borough Council, Ralph Anderson is opposing incumbent John Newmaker in Ward I for the Republican primary nomination. Republican Karl Tamm opposes Clarence Berdine in Ward 5. In Ward 6 incumbent Paul Yagge finds opposition from Tony Tomassoni and Councilman Nick Merenick. In Ward 9 has Richard Tucker also seeking the nomination.

As usual, Republican nomination will be tantamount to election in strongly Republican Warren County though Democrats have shown a determination to win Council Seat No. 2 by nominating a candidate in most wards.

Registration figures for Warren county show Republicans with a better than 2 to 1 margin, totals being 12,576 Republicans to 5,577 Democrats. Also runs include 325 non-partisans; 128 prohibitionists, 3 Socialists for a grand total of 18,609.

In Warren Borough, Republicans outnumber Democrats 4,997 to 1,617 with only the Fourth Ward spread (381 to 289) being close.

Youngville has 352 Republicans, 286 Dems; Sheffield has 553 to 413; Tidoute 328 to 155; Clarendon 228 to 146; Sugar Grove 194 to 97; Conewango First District (North Warren) 674 to 209; Corydon 1st 83 to 36; Bear Lake 87 to 38; Kinzua 131 to 123; Limestone 82 to 21; Pleasant 356 to 140; Pittsford 213 to 123; Triumph 89 to 28.

Only in Columbus, Corydon 2nd district, Mead 2nd district and Spring Creek 3rd district do the Democrats show registration majorities. In Columbus registration is 281 Democrats to 286 Republicans; Corydon 2nd shows 8 Republicans to 11 Dems; Mead 2 has 48 Dems, 33 Reps.; Spring Creek 3rd has Dems leading 31 to 25.

In Watson Township things are all tied up with 38 registered in each party. Of the county's three (Turn to Page Eight)

Three contests stand out in point of interest across the state. They are Democratic Mayor David L. Lawrence's bid for a fourth term at Pittsburgh; former Gov. John S. Fine's try for a political comeback and a special election for the Legislature in Mountour County.

Taking a look at the primary, Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom termed it "very important to the people of Pennsylvania."

Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democrat is state chairman, said it provided "an excellent opportunity" for voters to participate in selection of candidates.

Senator Urges Teamsters To Conduct Probe

Washington, (P)—Norman Gessert, cousin of Teamsters Union President Dave Beck's wife, today invoked the Fifth Amendment 40 times in 10 minutes in refusing to say whether he realized more than $100,000 from the Teamsters Union. Gessert, a graying, nervous man, nabbed as a witness after a two-month search, monotonously intoned the Fifth Amendment to a long list of questions by Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

Sponsors of prize money in the local Road-E-O are Warren Transfer Company, Warren County Association of Insurance Agents and others. Judges have been picked from various safety minded organizations and will be scoring the contestants as they drive through the skill tests.

Bill Dyke, Road-E-O chairman has urged all parents to get behind their sons and daughters by turning out to witness the Road-E-O as these teen-agers show their skills in safe carmanship.

McClellan said the situation calls "for immediate action on the part of the Teamsters Union to pursue it and make an early determination whether Mr. Beck is worthy to continue to serve in the position of trust and responsibility" he holds.

Senate Studies Reductions in Appropriations

Washington, (P)—The Senate debates a $613,584,290 Commerce Department money bill today. Prospects were a 29 per cent cut already made in it would be sustained.

As approved by the Senate Appropriations Committee, the bill carries $257,928,710 less in new funds than the $871,513,000 requested by President Eisenhower to run the department during the fiscal year starting July 1.

The Senate committee total was $40,100,770 less than allowed by the House.

But this apparent reduction below the House figure was achieved through a bookkeeping transaction. Sponsors of the bill conceded the Senate version actually would permit 25 millions more in spending than the House approved.

The Senate so far has acted on two appropriations bills, Treasury-Post Office and State-Justice for the new fiscal year.

Both houses yesterday completed action on the Treasury-Post Office bill and sent it to the White House. It was the first of the regular fiscal 1958 appropriations bills to clear Congress.

In acting on that measure and the State-Justice bill, the Senate reduced them $714,500 below the House amounts and $182,928,509 below Eisenhower's requests.

However, these are cuts in the President's $73,300,000,000 request for new appropriations, and do not necessarily reflect savings in his $1,800,000,000 spending budget. Much of the spending in fiscal 1958 will be out of appropriations made in past years.

Seven Colts Ready To Start in 81st Preakness Running

Baltimore, (P)—Seven colts headed by Calumet Farm's Kentucky Derby winner Iron Liege were entered today for tomorrow's 81st running of the $100,000-added Preakness.

The strapping son of Bull Lea became an official entry an hour and 21 minutes after the secretary's office was opened at 7 a.m.

CBS will televise the race, in a program from 5:30 to 6:00 p. m. EDT.

The odds-guessers figured Iron Liege would go off as a 4-5 favorite in the mile and three-sixteenths test, which with the Derby and the Belmont Stakes helps make up the triple crown for 3-year-old thoroughbreds.

Bold Ruler, fourth in the derby, was 2-1 in the Preakness-eve line and Federal Hill, fifth in Kentucky, rated about 6-1.

SLASHES WILL AFFECT MANY DEPARTMENTS

Harrisburg, (P)—Budget cuts totaling $84,400,000 including a 30 million dollar Welfare Department slash—were reportedly cleared today by the Republican legislative leadership.

A GOP source, who asked not to be identified, said 15 of 30 state agencies would get reduced budgets in the Republican-sponsored general appropriations bill to be introduced next Wednesday.

The entire operation has been shrouded with secrecy for the past two weeks to keep the lawmakers free of outside pressures from groups that would be affected.

Biggest cuts, in addition to the Welfare Department slash, included Public Instruction, 10 millions; Commerce, 8 millions; Property and Supplies and Health, each 7 millions, and Forests and Waters, 6½ millions.

Other reductions range down to Revenue, 4 millions; Mines and Public Assistance, each 3 millions; Military Affairs, 2 millions; Labor and Industry and Justice, a million dollars each; Internal Affairs $700,000; governor's office, $300,000, and auditor general and treasury, each $200,000.

The figures were the first details to come out on the area of cuts contemplated by the Republicans to scale down Gov. Leader's proposed 1½ billion dollar budget to their target figure of $1,420,000,000.

The $1,420,000,000 in appropriations would include $50,500,000 in increased state aid to school districts in addition to an automatic hike of about 100 millions under existing law.

Republicans plan to carry their budget-cutting program to the people on the basis that the only alternative to the plan is to increase taxes. The GOP fixed a "no-new-taxes" policy early in the 1957 Legislature.

Specific breakdowns on what particular departmental activities will be cut back were still being worked out. They are expected to be in shape by next Wednesday.

The GOP source indicated, however, that the mental health program will be the principal object of the 30 million dollar cut in the $221,100,000 appropriation asked (Turn to Page Eight)

Record High Gross Receipts Announced at Meeting of the Warren Electric Cooperative

Record high gross receipts of $268,897 were announced Wednesday evening at the 18th annual meeting of Warren Electric Cooperative. This 1956 record produced patronage capital of $29,417, a gain of $6,108 over the previous year, according to Harry Chiberg's treasury report.

It was noted average income from members of the rural electrification cooperative amounted to $76.50 while expenses per member were $68.12. With 705 miles of line, it cost $339 to keep the power moving in 1956 and revenue totaled $380 per mile.

President D. P. Trisket announced with pride that despite 247 new connections for 1956 (bringing meter total to 3511) that operating costs were only slightly higher than 1955 because of close cost surveillance.

Both president Trisket and secretary Arthur Hill took special notice of the dependence of cooperatives upon commercial power suppliers and added that only a constant threat to produce their own power keeps the rates down. Both stated that additional development of power at Niagara Falls would benefit cooperatives very much.

YOUR VOTE NEXT TUESDAY is earnestly sought by Edward F. Mackendrick, for Coroner of Warren County. Your vote will be appreciated.

President Trisket's report stated that 107 transformers had had the capacity upped during the year, that a new substation at Wing Hill had been energized and that the Spring Creek substation had been remodeled, all this vastly improving consumer service. WEC has invested $495 for each active member.

S. P. Sage, E. Perkins and M. Rupert were re-elected to the Board of directors. Entertainment was provided by Eisenhower School Band, Brokenstraw Stompers, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Borg, with Linnea Scott accompanying.

Meeting lasted from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m.

Guidance Counselor Is Named For Brokenstraw High School

In line with decisions arrived at earlier in the term, Edward Turchan, member of Youngsville High School faculty for the past five years, has been assigned to the position of guidance counselor for the coming school year.

Mr. Turchan is a graduate of University of Pittsburgh and his major teaching assignments in previous years have been in the fields of science.

Addition of a full-time guidance counselor to the staff is a step toward meeting requirements of the Department of Public Instruction relative to Secondary School classification.

The action concerning Mr. Turchan was one of many items given attention at the May meeting of Brokenstraw Valley Joint School Committee, President E. K. Oviatt presiding.

Routine business included approval of bills in the amount of $13,551.71, which includes the semi-annual payment to the Public School Employees Retirement Board and insurance on high school buildings.

The committee accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Helene E. McCune, who has taught commercial subjects in the high school the past two years and is accepting a position in Warren High.

Herbert H. Johnson, Youngsville, was elected to the high school faculty. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Pennsylvania State University, and is presently enrolled at Edinboro State Teachers' College to complete a course in education. With commencement for the Class of 1957 set for 8:15 p. m. May 31, the school calendar for next term was considered and given approval. Opening date will be September 3; closing, June 5. This year's class will number 89 seniors who have completed their respective courses.

H. J. Sherwood, supervising principal, reported exhibitors displaying books and teaching aids in the Youngsville school in April were pleased to have an estimated attendance of approximately 90% of the county teachers, as well as a number of school board members and other interested persons, and the display will probably become an annual affair.

He further reported faculty committees working on curriculum studies, as recommended by building consultants, are nearing completion of their project and will be ready to report at the next conference with Drs. Miller and Bosch in June; that pre-school tests have been administered to 132 children in the joint district.

Also received at this session were reports of Librarian Janet E. Henry and High School Principal Jesse Lyon.

Group Is Organized To Help Retarded Children In Area

In conjunction with a meeting to be held in the YMCA next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, the Warren County Association for Retarded Children welcomes the help of all persons interested in this vital youth problem and the opportunity to serve all parents who need help.

What would you do if you saw someone tie a child to a post, the Association asks? Would you walk by? And yet, thousands of children are shackled every day by bonds of ignorance, superstition, fear and pride.

Readers are asked to help break these bonds by supporting this newly-formed Warren county group. The program seeks the cooperation of all county residents and parents whose children need help are urged to join and work to promote the welfare of all mentally-retarded children.

Annual Convention of S. F. of A. Here Saturday

Also during the afternoon, a Memorial Service will honor all deceased members of the district.

Supper will be served about five o'clock by the ladies of Odin Lodge and all members are invited to attend both the meeting and evening meal.

Gardener Sniffs And Sips With These Twin Crops

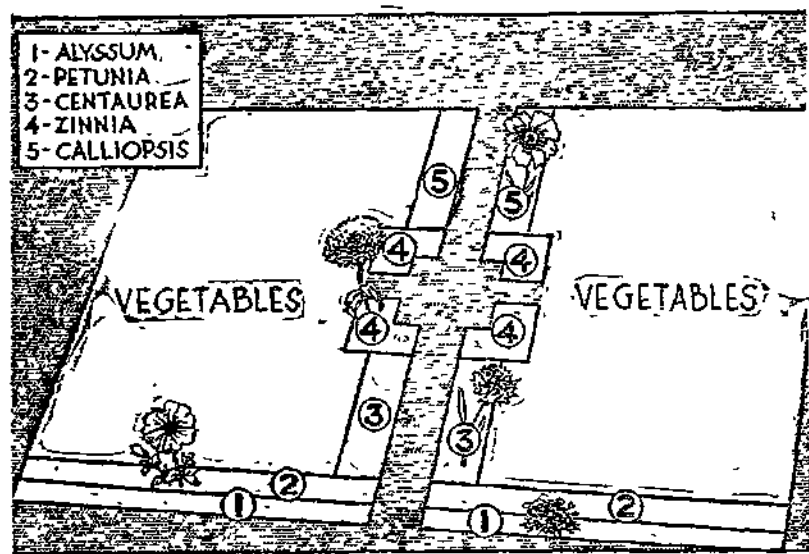

Chart shows suggested combination of flowers and vegetables.

Gardening for the table can be a project of beauty, as well as gastronomy.

Vegetables and flowers mix to their mutual advantage, both while growing in the garden and later, when they are ready for use in the home.

Probably nothing brings the beauty of the outdoors inside quite so quickly as a bowl of flowers on the table during the family meal—a meal, by the way, which is a delight to eat when it is prepared with fresh vegetables grown in your own garden.

For the gardener who has carefully and lovingly planted and tended a vegetable garden from seed to harvest, it is a thing of beauty in itself. However, that beauty is increased a hundred-fold when the vegetable garden is surrounded by borders of skillfully placed flowers.

Flowers seem to like the company in a vegetable garden. They like the sunshine, the regular watering, abundant room, the clean cultivation. These are conditions rarely found in crowded borders, which too often are over-shaded.

Many specialists, in fact, prefer to grow flowers in the type of garden plan afforded by a vegetable garden. Its straight rows are easy to keep clear of weeds, to water and fertilize, and also give insurance of abundant root-room for each plant.

While also giving a landscape effect, the vegetable garden's flower borders develop perfect plants and ideal flowers which are usually cut and arranged in vases in the house. For that reason, when selecting flowers to grow in vegetable garden rows, they should be picked for the kind of cut flowers they will make. They should be the kind that grow upright on strong, long stems. These will keep their proper place and not interfere with cultivating.

On the boundaries of the garden, and bordering the paths, sprawling plants can be grown, but keep them out of the row section. The garden plan shown above suggests a workable vegetable-flower arrangement. Here are the flowers it includes:

Alyssum (1) and petunias (2) are used for border plantings. Bachelor buttons (3) and calliopsis (5) join zinnias (4) for row planting. Also popular for this purpose are centaurea (3). While these are all excellent flowers for this type of garden, and should always be included, there are many other such flowers which you can select to adapt the same idea to your own garden.

Art Sponsors Fund Is Benefitted By Additional Sales At Current Exhibit

Warren Art Group is gratified to report sales of two paintings from the current Art Sponsors Exhibition, in addition to the purchases by the Art Sponsors Fund.

"Seated Woman in Studio," by Bernice L. Berman of Pittsburgh, was sold at the preview Monday evening. It is a handsome abstraction, diaphanous and luminous, and has been much admired.

Miss Berman is one of the outstanding young members of the Associated Artists. She was awarded the $200 Carnegie Prize in its 1956 Show, and had one-man show of 19 paintings in the Playhouse Gallery during April. One of her paintings was purchased for the Latrobe High School Collection, of which much has been heard here recently.

"Spring Thaw, Manayunk," by Giovanni Martino, N.A. of Philadelphia, an oil-tempera, was purchased the following day. It is almost monochromatic in color, yet has a luminous quality, and conveys a sense of mood, of lowering skies and scudding clouds in late spring. Mr. Martino's long list of honors and awards has already been mentioned in a recent Times-Mirror story.

The Art Sponsors Exhibition not only gives Warren an opportunity to see the work of well known contemporary painters, but an opportunity to acquire original works of art at prices made unusually reasonable for the benefit of the Fund.

Fine pictures not only add something very special to one's home but are an investment which gives lasting pleasure, unlike much that is purchased today and becomes passe and forgotten tomorrow.

Announcement of the Popular Prize will be made at the close of the Exhibition at 6:00 p. m. Saturday.

BETHEL EUB HOLDS LOCAL CONFERENCE

The local conference of Bethel EUB church was under the leadership of Dr. Glenn Donelson, conference superintendent, business including the following action:

Mrs. Harold Gilson was reelected secretary of the local conference; Carl Anderegg, delegate to the annual conference August 28-September 1, with Mrs. Ruby Sperry as alternate; Joyce Anderegg was nominated delegate from Erie Conference to the next General Conference of the denomination in Harrisburg in October.

Reports from the pastor, trustees and treasurer were read and approved; elected to the Board of Stewards for next year were Mrs. Ruby Sperry, Oscar Sherwood, John Mallery, Jr., Archie Campbell, Eugene Spencer.

NORTH WARREN PTA

North Warren PTA will hold its final meeting of the season at 8:00 p. m. Monday in the community house, when officers for the coming year will be elected and Dr. James Forsythe, psychiatrist at Warren

State Hospital, will speak on "The Child and His Future — Punishment or Appeasement." Refreshments and a social hour will follow the business meeting.

FIRST BAPTIST

The pastor's subject in the 11:00 a.m. broadcast service will be

"The Necessity of a Spiritual Experience"; Mrs. Carl Whipple will play "Pastorale" by Decker and "Postlude" by Schumann; Mrs. Florence Stevens will direct the choir anthems, "Go Not Far From Me, O God" by Zingarelli-Riegger and "Hold Lord of All" by Welsh-Williams. At 7:30 p.m., the pastor will speak on "The King".

Seniors Honored In Spring Concert By Choir at Beaty

For many members of Warren High School A Cappella Choir, seniors graduating in June, last night's Spring Concert in Beaty Junior High School auditorium marked their last public appearance as a WHS choral group.

Maintaining a long-established custom, Director Carroll A. Fowler expressed his pleasure "in giving seniors a little token of appreciation of their hard work" and presented each a choir pin. First introduced were the co-presidents, Anne Putnam and Ray Bennett; secretaries, Joyce Donaghy and Barbara Mihalko, after which he continued with the following:

Standing baskets of spring flowers, potted plants, and cathedral tapers in background torchieres formed the setting for the blue and white-robed choristers as they opened their program with softly-hummed strains of "My God and I."

Extra Bathroom Serves Dual Purpose

New Materials Make Maintenance Easy

BY KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

STAKING out a small corner on the home planner's blueprint is the extra bathroom. Despite its tiny dimensions, it more than pays its way in added convenience to the family and increased value to a home.

More builders are equipping new homes with the extra half or full bathroom homemakers have demanded. More homeowners are looking for ways to squeeze out a few feet of space in which to add the extra facilities.

Plumbing contractors are making it easier to remodel by providing free estimates, advice, package deals and counsel on financing. Fixture manufacturers cooperate with sleek equipment designed to fit into small spaces, look well and be a cinch to keep clean.

IN CONTRAST to the high colors and pom-pom-and-poodle decor that marked the chic powder room reserved for guests, the styling of the new tiny bathrooms is usually more adaptable to family use as well as guests.

New plastic decorating materials promise to give these rooms the shine and sparkle of a jewel box while keeping costs and maintenance to a minimum. Many emphasize neutral backgrounds with textured and translucent effects to give a more spacious look to small areas.

A new type of wall covering, a multi-ply vinyl originally developed for institutional use, is finding its way into homes. It is rich looking, yet ruggedly practical. This heavy, textured material is pasted on the wall, where it forms a waterproof, scrubbable barricade against splatters, stains and scuffs.

Many colors are available. But the neutral shades of off-white, gray and beige, often touched with tiny streaks of gold, strike me as well-suited to the small bathroom which must look its smartest for guests, yet bear up under heavy traffic from the children.

NEUTRAL SHADES can form a permanent background for a changing rainbow of towels. And if, for example, the wall covering choice is white, sharpened by black and gold streaks, it's easy to tie it to black-and-white plastic tile flooring.

New rigid polyethylene wastebaskets in white or charcoal, set in brass frames, are both inexpensive and handsome. So are the new plastic-covered hampers which also bear the sparkle of gold threads. These are available in small hassock sizes as well as the super family size.

Space-saving towel rings (instead of bars) and shower curtain rings in golden tones add to the list of new, inexpensive bathroom accessories.

Translucent shower curtains, made by a special new process, resemble glass brick in pattern and have a similar three-dimensional effect. They don't overpower a tiny room with color or pattern. These vinyl curtains, which require no special care, do a fine job of filtering light into a small shower enclosure.

The Mature Parent A Small Boy's Idea Of the Naked Truth

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

JOHN'S parents had guests—his childless aunt and uncle. As his bedtime neared, he sensed the visitors' growing impatience with his continuing presence. Finally, his uncle said, "Don't kids ever go to bed any more?"

Installed in bed, John resented dismissal from the fascinating events he was sure were in progress downstairs. So he took off his pajamas and ran downstairs. There he yelled and dashed about in defiant nakedness.

This was his way of saying: "This is me as I really am! Behold me divested of my pajamas and the obligation to pretend I like sharing my parents' attention. I am very, very mad—as bare of polite feeling toward these intruders as I am of my night clothes!"

HIS mother understood this. Instead of condemning or encouraging his nakedness, she just said, "It's too cold to run about like that"—and bore him back to bed. As she picked up his discarded pajamas, she added, "It's silly to take off your clothes before people who don't know you and love you."

John himself knew he had aroused more disapproval in his aunt and uncle, so he accepted the truth in his mother's statement and fell peacefully to sleep.

If we remember how often little children are required to clothe their real feelings in the garments of submissiveness, we can readily appreciate their delight in physical nakedness. Their view is, "All right, make me appear to feel what I don't—but my body is still my own to make appear as it really is."

SO when they feel very happy, they are confident enough to fling off constraining clothes and prance about without them, just as when they feel very oppressed, they are mad enough to fling them off—and war-dance about in defiant self-assertion.

If we make them feel ashamed of their naked bodies at these times, we make them ashamed of exposing their naked feelings. However, we don't have to encourage indiscriminate displays of nakedness as some modern parents do. Little children have to accept the reality that everyone doesn't love them. So it is unwise to encourage these displays before critical people.

Just as John has to learn to choose the time, place and people to whom to expose his naked feelings, so we have to protect him against harmful disapproval of his unclothed body.

Legion Auxiliary 36th Anniversary Is Pleasant Event

Chief Complanter Unit 135, American Legion Auxiliary, observed the 36th anniversary of its charter grant with a delightful tureen dinner. Spring flowers throughout the Legion Home created a colorful setting surrounding the focal point, a birthday cake appropriately decorated in the Auxiliary colors of blue and gold, topped with a United States flag.

Past presidents of the unit were represented by Mrs. Harry Nelson, Mrs. Larry Krespan, Mrs. Milton Witz, Mrs. George Cobb, Mrs. John Driscoll, Mrs. Alan Euerkle, Mrs. Effie Speidel, Mrs. George Kiernan, Mrs. Ed Koehley, Mrs. William Germondo, Mrs. Merle Graham and Mrs. Ralph A'Harrish.

A letter from Mrs. C. D. Cannon, a past president now living in Norristown, extended greetings to all members and congratulations to Chief Complanter Unit on the anniversary of such an important event.

Announcement was made concerning Poppy Days, May 24-25, and a plea made for more volunteers to assist with this project.

Mrs. Bissan, Mrs. Kiernan, Mrs. Euerkle and Mrs. Gerda Carlson reported, in an interesting manner, on the April 25 Section luncheon-meeting which honored national and department presidents in Pittsburgh.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Warren Times-Mirror
Warren, Pa.
Dear Mr. Lowrey,

The Board of Control and the staff of the Warren Public Library wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the fine cooperation we received from the Times-Mirror on our Fines Forgiveness Day.

Without the cooperation of the news agencies in Warren, it could not have succeeded.

As you know, 258 books were returned on May 10. We feel that over half of that number would never have appeared on our shelves again, had fines been charged on them.

Because of your interest, the first Fines Forgiveness Day at the Warren Public Library was successful.

Cordially,

Georgia S. Coyle

drama was given in Oberammergau in 1634 as the fulfillment of a religious vow, and from that time to this, 324 years later, in spite of many obstacles the vow has been kept.

The Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce are bringing this, the world's greatest drama, to the people of Warren, in the belief that such attractions should be made available to all people because of the turmoil and strife throughout the world today. Religious leaders throughout this country have hailed the showing of this tremendous religious spectacle... described as an influence destined to last through all the days that are to come.

Other Teamsters officials have given no indication that ouster proceedings or even an investigation will be initiated. However, the AFL-CIO has launched probes of both Beck and the union, temporarily suspending Beck as an AFL-CIO officer.

Before taking the witness stand, he told newsmen variously (1) he had "no intention in the world" of quitting, but (2) would give "my serious consideration" to any demand by the union's Executive Board that he step aside for the good of the union.

the preliminary estimate was given as only 485. Even that was a record first night number for a Graham crusade.

One woman collapsed and died at the outset of the services last night. She was identified as Mrs. Gertrude Mabray, 54, New York City.

Attendance last night fell below the opening turnout, when 18,500 filled the Garden, but Graham said the 13,000 surpassed any second-night crowd at any of his campaigns so far.

The well produced more than a million dollars worth of gas before its flow stopped in 1952. It is officially known as Tamarac No. 1.

A stockholders' squabble about drilling expenses has delayed distribution of profits to some 300 shareholders.

THIEVES SHOW RESTRAINT

Philadelphia (AP)—Thieves who broke into the Americans for Democratic Action local headquarters here showed rare restraint.

They stole $175 but took only two of 10 hard-to-get tickets to the New York play "My Fair Lady". The tickets are prizes for the hardest working ADA volunteers.

"MOONWATCHERS" MAY SPOT SOVIET SATELLITE — During the dry run of "Operation Moonwatch," its small army of amateur astronomers may spot a Russian man-made "moon" already circling the earth. Scientists have reason to suspect that the Russians may already have launched one secretly. "Moonwatch" is the spotting system set up by the Smithsonian Institution at the 65 points shown on Newsmap above to track the course of America's man-made "moon" expected to be launched in July. In the dry run, a plane, showing one candle-power of light, will cross the continent at an altitude and speed to simulate the satellite. Observers, using small donated telescopes and reflecting mirrors, will check it and record the exact time of sighting. It is expected that the series of observations will help chart exactly the satellite's course—and, of course, spot the Red "moon"—if any.

ITALIAN ROAD RACE CRASH—The mangled wreckage of a Ferrari sports car rests in a canal after the speeding car, driven by the Marquis Alfonso de Portago of Spain, hurtled into a crowd watching the Mille Miglia (Thousand-Mile) automobile race. At least 12, including Portago and his co-driver Edmund Nelson of Beloit, Wis., were killed. The accident occurred at Guidizzolo, a small village near Mantua, about 80 miles from the finish of the race. The red racer had a blowout, crashed into a telephone pole and then struck onlookers on both sides of the road.

TEXAS TOWN OBLITERATED—The force of a 10-foot wall of water carried this trailer for seven blocks and dumped it on a new car as a flash flood demolished about 90 per cent of the business area of Lampasas, Tex., a town of 5,000. The water, rushing through a broken levee, trapped unsuspecting persons in homes and stores. It's the latest in an epidemic of floods, cloud-bursts and tornadoes that began April 19.

If a girl's date suggests going to a movie she shouldn't insist on doing something else if the entertainment she has in mind costs a lot more than a movie. If her idea of what they could do is not more expensive than what her date has suggested, that is quite all right.
The date should fit the boy's pocketbook.

COACH BRIGGS ANNOUNCES COMPETITORS FOR DISTRICT TRACK MEET ON SATURDAY

The fleetest feet, strongest arms and sharpest reflexes of Warren High School track squad will be in Erie Saturday for the annual District 10 meet at Academy High School.

Approximately 14 teams will be competing, with the locals expected to finish in the top half. Last year Dragons finished fourth behind perennial winner Academy, Erie East and Oil City, which Warren had beaten for Section 2 kudos.

Charges of Coach Loyal Briggs will go into the contest sporting their second consecutive Section 2 crown.

The boys clamor into a bus at Beaty School about 7:30 a. m. for the big meet which is expected to last all day. Both District 10 "A" and "B" teams will compete.

Below is the list of lads who will compete in the match. Coach Briggs said it was compiled of necessity early in the season and later performance, however justifiable of entry, was unfortunately too late:

Steve Lindquist, broadjump, low hurdles, 880-relay; Jack Suppa, 100-yard dash, 220, 880-relay; Bob Swanson, mile and 880 run; Louis VanBlos, 440 run; Bob Saunders, 880; Dick Kremer, high jump and shot; Clair Tremblay, pole vault; Iver Stenberg, pole vault; Ron Bowen, discus; Jim Mohnkern, javelin; John Berdine, high jump; Javelin; Jon Wiedmaier, high hurdles and 880 relay; Connie Hultman, discus; Jack Karkosky, 880-relay.

On Monday evening a large delegation will compete in Olean relays and next Saturday the boys journey to the state meet will be held at Penn State.

14 Qualify in Junior Rifle Club Testings

The following lads and lassies have successfully qualified in these Junior Rifle Club qualifications:

Paul Mahaffey, Bruce Hook and Jim Ruhman qualified as Junior Experts by shooting 340 or better; Michael Kent, Sally DeLong and Jim Bonnell, Junior Sharpshooters, 300 or better; Shiela Carter, Wayne Miller, Sue Yeagle, Tom Watt, Betty Lucia, Joan Harrison, Marabeth Newton, Junior Marksmen 250 or better.

Points are amassed from 10 shots, prone, 10 sitting, 10 kneeling, 10 off-hand. Highest total possible is 400.

Yankees Maintain Discreet Silence Following Brawl

By ORLO ROBERTSON
New York, (AP)—The proud New York Yankees, embarrassed by an early morning brawl involving six of their stars, were maintaining a discreet silence today.

Acting either on advice of counsel or orders from Manager Casey Stengel or club officials, the players declined to discuss the Wednesday morning brawl in which a New York delatessen owner claimed he was slugged by veteran outfielder Hank Bauer.

The Yankee dressing room was like a morgue last night after the world champions defeated the Kansas City Athletics 3-0. Two of the sextet had been benched by Stengel in a last-hour shakeup. Bauer, threatened with a $250,000 law suit by Edwin Jones the delatessen owner, declined to talk.

The others—Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra, Mickey Mantle, Johnny Kucke and Billy Martin, just shook their heads.

Ford, scheduled to start, was benched in favor of Bob Turley. Berra also sat out the bench.

"I didn't see Ford because the whole world knows he was out 'til two in the morning," Stengel said. "If I used him and he got beat, people would wonder what I was doing. Berra has been around long enough to know better. The way he's been hitting (.200) he should have been home getting some rest. Well, he can rest tonight."

Mantle showed no ill effects. He came up with a homer, a single and two walks. Bauer, dropped to eighth in the batting lineup, drove in the final Yankee run with a single.

Speaking of Sports ...

Heading for Cumberland, Md. today from this area are Sid Blackman, Hank Dahl and Rocky Shiel, three of the foremost sportscar bugs in the district. They will be on hand to watch Walter Hansen of Westfield, N. J., last year's winner of the feature race at the Cumberland National Championship Sports Car "spectacular," attempt a repeat performance when he returns to the Maryland City.

K. of C. Bowlers Hold Annual Banquet

The St. Joseph bowling team, season's winner and the Knights of Columbus Council champion, was highly honored Thursday night at a banquet attended by more than 50 members and guests at the K. of C. council rooms.

The delicious roast chicken dinner with all the trimmings was prepared and served by the following well known women: Bertha Kamen, Florence Schmutz, Angelina Hollingshead, Minnie Gerardi, Prudy Cosmano, Fran Lucia and Hazel Musante. The invocation was by John Solomon.

Al Chiaromonte proved an entertaining and versatile toastmaster.

The team received the Dr. J. T. Valone Trophy, which was presented to Frank Filesi, president of the bowling league and captain of the St. Joseph team by Sam Gerardi. Mr. Filesi also received an achievement award for recording the most improved average in the league.

Frank Gerardi hit 692 for the highest three-game total in Warren County. He received an engraved lighter from Thad Lawson and will receive an award from the Warren Bowling Association and the A.B.C. Tony Molinaro hit high single of 277, for which he received a trophy from Mr. Lawson.

A new trophy this year—the Father Nick Russo Trophy—was presented to each member of the winning team by Al Chiaromonte, who was master of ceremonies. Members of the team are George Hesch, Dan Doherty, Ward Piccirillo, Frank Gerardi and Capt. Frank Filesi.

Perfect attendance award of $1 each were also presented by Dr. Valone to Henry Stec, John Salamon, Nick Mangus, Bunny Scallise, Henry Leofsky, John Proud, Tom Musante, George Yarzabek, Joe Lucia, Louis Barone, John Clark, Fred Petrunak, George Hesch and Fred Aumer.

Frank Filesi was re-elected president, and John Salamon as vice president; Bob Haben, treasurer; Joe Musante, Angelo Juliano, co-secretary.

Guests at the meeting were Ed C. Lowrey of the Times-Mirror and Dick Bove, local sports announcer.

Texas and Jones Chevrolet Win High, Wide, Handsome In CLS

Romps continued to be the order of the evening yesterday in City Softball competition as both Texas Lunch and Jones Chevrolet of Sheffield belted in 24 runs to skunk the opposition.

Bud Speicher pitched no hit ball as Valone Bros. bowed to Texas 24-2. Youngsville National Bank was dumped 24-5 by Jones.

Texas sluggers clonked 27 hits in 52 trips, with Jack White and Wamie Check hitting 4 for 7 and D. Murphy getting 4 of 6. TL took an early lead of 9 in inning 2 and padded it thereafter.

Jones Chevrolet took its early lead of 7 by the end of inning 2 and Youngsville never came close. J. Haden slammed a homer for Jones as one of his three hits and Hajnik duplicated the feat for Youngsville.

M. Steffan was Jones hitting star, clubbing safely 5 for 5, two of them doubles. Farnsworth also slammed 2 half homers and other double baggers were hammered out by G. Bires, Ritchie, Farnsworth, F. Johnson.

Games Monday will pit Lacy's Confectionery against Culligans at State Hospital and Youngville versus Texas at West Side. Lacy's play an exhibition game Sunday against Bradford Shamrocks, beginning on West Side field at 2 p. m.

Grayson's Scoreboard

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Birdie Tebbetts authored a piece titled, "All Ballplayers Are Afraid."

The manager of the Reds should know, but Don Zimmer offers irrefutable evidence to the contrary. Off his record, it would take an atomic bomb to get the indestructible Brooklyn infielder out of baseball.

It is doubtful that any ballplayer ever retained his batting form after being beamed and otherwise broken up to the extent that young Zimmer has been hospitalized.

Perhaps the nearest to Zimmer in the sick bay league was Pete Reiser, the brilliant Dodger center fielder of the 1940's.

The difference between Reiser and Zimmer is that the former's injuries were self-inflicted. Reiser persisted in trying to knock down concrete walls with his head. Once he cracked his skull on one. He injured his arm diving after a ball while in the Army, broke his ankle and other parts sliding and whatnot.

BEANINGS TWICE THREATENED Zimmer's career, once his life. Struck on the left side of the head in Columbus, Ohio, twi, light, July 7, 1953, Zimmer spent 31 days "on his deathbed." An operation on the left side of the head revealed that his brain had been knocked to one side, so surgeons had to operate on the right side, placed two tantalum buttons in his skull.

"Tantalum buttons are like corks," smiles Zip Zimmer, who once more filled in more than acceptably at shortstop when the sacroiliac in the small of Pee Wee Reese's back kicked up. "Don't bother me a bit. Just an occasional headache."

That was enough to make the most courageous batter plate shy, but not Zimmer. The little Dutchman was back smacking home runs for St. Paul the next spring.

MISFORTUNE TRAILED ZIMMER like a faithful hound. In the winter of 1955, while shortstopper for Sauter of the Puerto Rican League, Zim's right and throwing wrist was broken when struck by a pitched ball. He was out six weeks, and four days after returning to the line-up had to be rushed to a hospital for an emergency appendectomy.

Last season, a Hal Jeffcoat fast ball fractured Zimmer's cheekbone and injured his left eye. It was feared that he had a detached retina.

"That would have finished me as a ballplayer," says Zim, "and I was more concerned than I was while in the hospital after the Columbus beaning."

Calhoun Is Meeting Joey Gairdello In Cleveland Tonight
Cleveland (P)—Rory Calhoun, Georgia-born slugger now of White Plains, N. Y., will be out to demonstrate against Joey Gairdello tonight in 10 rounds at the arena that there was no need to go into the welterweight class to find an opponent for Ray Robinson.
The 22-year-old Calhoun has been fighting professionally since late 1954 and has a string of 27 victories, 14 knockouts, and a lone defeat, a close decision to Spider Webb in Chicago last August.
Gairdello, a Brooklyn-born Philadelphia who will be 27 next month, has six more years of ring experience than Calhoun and has won 70-23 of them by kayoes—against 13 losses.
The fight, nationally televised by NBC at 10 p. m. EDT, will be scored on the basis of a mandatory five points for each round won.

Trevenen, Perrin Come Closest To Hole In One
Conewango Valley's men golfers put in a full afternoon of tournament golf yesterday afternoon with a "fewest putts" match followed by a hole in one contest.
Johnny Trevenen and Frank Perrin tied for first in the latter event, consisting of a pitch from the practice tee to green. Second was Hans Link.
In the fewest putts tourney, Tim Creal needed only ten to win the first flight. He also had low gross of 34, two under par, but since there is only one prize to a customer, the low gross went to "Skip" Morine, Bob Walsh and "Heggise" Schmidt who carded 42's.
Jack Blair needed the fewest putts in the second division, 13. The low gross prize was divided between Tom Atwell and Lloyd Cleveland who each had 46.
Howard Boyd matched Creal's flight. Ray Stein had the best low mark of ten putts in the third card, 47.
In the fourth flight Al Loran-ger's 13 putts was low while Dr. Francis Ericsson's 47 was good for the low gross prize.
Next Thursday afternoon there will be a match play against par tourney, golfers using full handicaps.

Seven Horse s Are Lined Up To Start In 81st Preakness
Baltimore (P)—The proprietor of proud old Pimlico began taking official entries today for tomorrow's 81st running of the Preakness, and seven owners lined up to invest another $500 each in hope of taking down some of the $100,000—added prize money.
Ready to be dropped into the entry box were these names:
Iron Liege, Calumet Farm's Kentucky Derby winner.
Bold Ruler, the Wheatley Stable star trained by 82-year-old Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons.
Federal Hill, the front-running speedball of Clifford Lussky.
Inswep, the Roslyn Farm nominee which finished second by a length to Bold Ruler in the Preakness Prey last Monday.
Nah Hiss, owned by Mrs. Jules Schwartz.
Promised Land, a son of Palestinian and the nominee of trainer Hirsch Jacobs' wife, Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs.
Inside Tract, whose entry took Pimlico officials by such surprise that they had to telephone the Jockey Club in New York for identification of his owners, D-M Stable.
Bold Ruler, fourth in the Derby to the despair of those who bet him down to 6-5 favoritism, was 2-1 in the Preakness eve line and Federal Hill, fifth in Kentucky, rated about 6-1.
